

“One Hundred Scouts”

Of any one hundred boys who becomes Scouts, it must be confessed that thirty will drop out in their first year. Perhaps this may be regarded as a failure, but in later life all of these will remember that they had been Scouts and will speak well of the program.

Of the one hundred, only rarely will one ever appear before a juvenile court judge. Twelve of the one hundred will be from families that belong to no church. Through Scouting, these twelve and many of their families will be brought into contact with a church and will continue to be active all their lives. Six of the one hundred will become pastors.

Each of the one hundred will learn something from Scouting. Almost all will develop hobbies that will add interest throughout the rest of their lives. Approximately one-half will serve in the military, and in varying degrees profit from their scout training. At least one will use it to save another person's life and many will credit it with saving their own.

Four of the one hundred will reach Eagle rank, and at least one will later say that he valued his Eagle above his college degree. Many will find their future vocation through merit badge work and Scouting contacts. Seventeen of the one hundred boys will later become Scout leaders and will give leadership to thousands of additional boys.

Only one in four boys in will become Scouts, but it is interesting to know that of the leaders of this world in business, religion and politics, three out of four were scouts.

This story will never end. Like the “Golden Pebble” of service dropped into the human sea it will continue to radiate in ever widening circles, influencing the characters of men down through unending time.

The Scout Oath

*“On my honor, I will do my best
To do my duty to God and to my country,

To keep myself physically strong,

Trail the Eagle

Trail the Eagle, trail the Eagle
Climbing all the time.
First the Star and then the Life
Will on your bosom shine.
Keep climbing!
Blaze the Trail and we will follow.
Hark the Eagles call!
On, brothers, on until we're
Eagles all.
