Dear Scout Lee:

You have just achieved the Eagle Scout Rank, the highest badge attainable in the ladder of Advancement in Scouting. I therefore present the Eagle Scout Award for your perseverance in attaining the Eagle Scout Rank. On behalf of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines, I wish to congratulate you for a job well-done. Certainly, your family and others who helped you, are proud of your achievement and proficiency.

As an Eagle Scout, you will now be in the company of outstanding men who are dedicating their efforts in the implementation of the Scout Oath and Law- the principles they have chosen to uphold. Everybody will now expect more from you.

You have reached the position where the community expects you to do more service. You are also expected to explore new adventures that will keep you close to nature. Whether you continue as a unit leader or transfer to another branch of Scouting, I hope that you will give your helping hand in training brother Scouts along the Scouting trail.

Together with this letter are two embroidered Carrick Bends. The National Executive Board is happy and proud to present these to you as a token of appreciation and recognition for your achievement.

Congratulations!

Sincerely yours,

CARLOS C. ESCUDERO
Secretary General
